

Download Covered Bridges Of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania

PA covered bridges dot the Lancaster County landscape. There are over 25 historic covered bridges in Lancaster PA Dutch Country, and we've put together driving tours for you to see them. There are over 25 historic covered bridges in Lancaster PA Dutch Country, and we've put together driving tours for you to see them. The following is a list of covered bridges in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania USA. Lancaster County has the most covered bridges in Pennsylvania with 29 covered bridges. The longest covered bridge in the world was built in Lancaster County in 1814. It crossed the Susquehanna River between Columbia and Wrightsville, a distance of over a mile (5,960 feet). Ice and high water destroyed it in 1832. Tips: Use the + / - slider at the top left to zoom in or out. Move the map left, right, up or down by clicking on the small arrows at the top left.